DISTRIBUTION

DIGITAL

Airlines

HighClass Magazine has been a Swiss partner in distribution of the Chinese issue since 2011. To reach more passengers, a digital form of the Chinese edition has been offered to passengers travelling by Lufthansa, Austrian Airlines, and Swiss International Air Lines since January 2018.

We reach Chinese tourists travelling to Switzerland on the direct flights of Swiss International Air Lines between Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Singapore, and Switzerland and also those who travel via Frankfurt, Munich, or Vienna airport hubs on flights of Lufthansa and Austrian Airlines from other Chinese megalopolises.

How does it work?

Every passenger gets a link to the Media Box via a pre-flight newsletter or Web-Check-in-confirmation. Passengers can download a certain number of publications for free. The number of downloads depends on the booking class or the Miles & More status.

Economy flight: 1 free download

Business Class flight: 3 free downloads

M&M-Status SENATOR: 3 free downloads per flight

M&M-Status HON-Member: 20 free downloads per flight

HighClass Magazine has a special status thanks to which you can download it for free even if free downloads are not available.
